After downloading the template, the first thing to do is fill in and colour the glasses.

Next, place the glasses on top of the face template, so that you know where to draw the nose and mouth. Obviously, there is no need to draw the eyes.

At this point, you can finish drawing the hair and colouring in the face. Add the flowers to the hair.

Finish off by gluing the glasses onto the face.

Great for a display or bulletin board.

Frida Kahlo, born on July 6, 1907, in Mexico, was a celebrated artist known for her captivating self-portraits and vibrant paintings.

She married the famous muralist Diego Rivera, and their tumultuous relationship often influenced her art.

Some of her most renowned works include "The Two Fridas," "Self-Portrait with Thorn Necklace and Hummingbird," and "The Broken Column."

In 1925, Frida's life changed dramatically when she was involved in a devastating bus accident that left her with severe injuries, including a broken spinal column, fractured pelvis, and numerous other fractures.

During her recovery, Frida began to paint, using art as a way to express her physical and emotional pain.

In 1938, Frida's art gained international attention with her solo exhibition at the Julien Levy Gallery in New York City, marking her first exhibition in America.

Despite enduring lifelong health struggles, Frida continued to create powerful artwork until her death on July 13, 1954.

Her legacy as a groundbreaking artist and a symbol of resilience lives on, inspiring countless admirers around the world.
